VII. Call to the Public: A public body may make an open call to the public during a public meeting, subject to reasonable time, place and manner restrictions, to allow individuals to address the public body on any issue within the jurisdiction of the public body. At the conclusion of an open call to the public, individual members of the public body may respond to criticism made by those who have addressed the public body, may ask staff to review a matter, or may ask that a matter be put on a future agenda. Members of the public body shall not discuss or take legal action on matters raised during an open call to the public unless the matters are properly noticed for discussion and legal action. A.R.S. § 38-431.01 (G).

Members of the public body may present a brief summary of current events. Members of the public body shall not propose, discuss, deliberate, or take legal action on matters raised during a summary of current events unless the matters are properly noticed for discussion and legal action.
