

Bonding

The affectional tie and warm, loving commitment of the caregiver to the infant. Although, colloquially, the term “bonding” tends to be used interchangeably with the word “attachment” or the general concept of emotional connectedness, the literature tends to reserve this term for the caregiver’s side of the attachment relationship