

Breaking the Silence: Mental Illness and the Family

- ◆ Do you have a family member suffering from bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, or other serious mental illness?
- ◆ Do you know where to find help?
- ◆ Do you think enough support is available?

Dr. Laura K. Nelson, acting Deputy Director of the Arizona Department of Health Services' Division of Behavioral Health Services, in partnership with ASU's Center for Applied Behavioral Health Policy (CABHP), presents a screening and discussion of the eye-opening public television program

MINDS ON THE EDGE: Facing Mental Illness

Dr. Nelson will facilitate a Panel Discussion to follow with:

- Vicki Staples, M.Ed., CABHP's Associate Director for Clinical Initiatives
- Nick Margiotta, Phoenix Police Department's Crisis Intervention Training program
- Karen Franklin, parent and co-author of Addicted Like Me

Tuesday, February 9th — Noon to 1:30 p.m.
ASU's Innovations Auditorium
at Nursing and Health Innovation, Building 2 (500 N. Third Street)

Seating is limited, so please RSVP to Sarah Henley at DBHS, who can also provide information about joining via Webinar.
