

Emergency Safety Situation

(42 CFR 483.352) Unanticipated resident behavior that places the resident or others at serious threat of violence or injury if no intervention occurs and that calls for the use of restraint or seclusion as an immediate response.