

FEDERALLY QUALIFIED HEALTH CENTERS (FQHC)/
OUTPATIENT TREATMENT CENTERS -
TOP TEN STATE DEFICIENCIES
(01-01-15 through 12-31-15)

R9-10-1010.E.3.a.	Medication Services
R9-10-1003.B.2.b.	Administration
R9-10-1003.B.7.	Administration
R9-10-1004.1.	Quality Management
R9-10-1008.A.1.	Patient Rights
R9-10-1010.E.1.	Medication Services
R9-10-1028.1.	Infection Control
R9-10-1029.D.2.a.iii.	Emergency and Safety Standards
R9-10-1029.F.4.	Emergency and Safety Standards
R9-10-1030.A.1.b.	Physical Plant, Environmental Services

0902:

E. When medication is stored at an outpatient treatment center, an administrator shall ensure that:

3. Policies and procedures are established, documented, and implemented for:

a. Receiving, storing, inventorying, tracking, dispensing, and discarding medication including expired medication

0206:

B. A governing authority shall:

2. Establish, in writing:

b. Qualifications for an administrator;

0218:

B. A governing authority shall:

7. Except as provided in subsection (B)(6), notify the Department according to A.R.S. § 36-425(I) when there is a change in an administrator and identify the name and qualifications of the new administrator.

0380:

An administrator shall ensure that:

1. A plan is established, documented, and implemented for an ongoing quality management program that, at a minimum, includes:

0600:

A. An administrator shall ensure that:

1. The requirements in subsection (B) and the patient rights in subsection (C) are conspicuously posted on the premises;

0898:

E. When medication is stored at an outpatient treatment center, an administrator shall ensure that:

1. Medication is stored in a separate locked room, closet, or self-contained unit used only for medication storage

2140:

Infection Control

2252:

D. An administrator shall ensure that an outpatient treatment center has either:

2. The following:

a. A smoke detector installed in each hallway of the outpatient treatment center that is:

iii. Tested monthly; and 2272:

F. An administrator shall ensure that:

4. A patient can exit through any exit during hours of operation;

2322:

A. An administrator shall ensure that:

1. An outpatient treatment center ' s premises are:

b. Cleaned and disinfected according to the outpatient treatment center ' s policies and procedures to prevent, minimize, and control illness and infection; and