Investigation Findings and Actions

As prescribed in Arizona Revised Statute (“A.R.S.”) § 36-2220(E) and A.R.S. § 36-2220(M), Information, documents and records received by the department or prepared by the department in connection with an investigation that is conducted pursuant to Statute and Rule relating to emergency medical care technicians are confidential and are not subject to public inspection or civil discovery.

The results of the investigation and the decision of the department are available to the public after the investigation is completed and the investigation file is closed.

For more information on completed investigations or to obtain a copy of a specific finding and action, please contact the Enforcement Manager for further assistance.
