Policy:
The Arizona Department of Health Services is committed to the prohibition against unlawful discrimination, harassment and retaliation in the workplace. It is the policy of the Arizona Department of Health Services that all ADHS employees shall comply with all federal and state anti-discrimination laws. ADHS and its employees shall not unlawfully discriminate against any individual with regard to the terms and conditions of employment, including hiring, pay, leave, insurance benefits, retention, and rehiring. All allegations of discrimination will be promptly investigated, and any employee who engages in conduct in violation of this policy may be disciplined or separated from state employment.

Equal Employment Opportunity. ADHS shall provide equal employment opportunity for all individuals regardless of race, color, national origin, religion, age, disability, genetic information, sex, pregnancy, military or veteran status, or any other status protected by federal law, state law, or regulation. It is the policy of ADHS that all individuals are treated in a fair and non-discriminatory manner throughout the application and employment process.

Harassment Prohibited. Harassment of a sexual nature or harassment based on race, color, national origin, religion, age, disability, genetic information, sex, pregnancy, military or veteran status, or any other status protected by federal law, state law, or regulation is prohibited. ADHS prohibits the unlawful harassment of any employee in the course of the employee’s work by supervisors, coworkers, or third parties, such as vendors or customers. Any ADHS employee who engages in unlawful harassment may be disciplined or separated from state employment.

Protection from Retaliation. ADHS does not permit or tolerate retaliation against anyone for raising a concern about, assisting in an investigation of, or filing a complaint in good faith concerning unlawful discrimination or harassment. Any ADHS employee found to have engaged in retaliation against another individual for reporting or assisting in the investigation of any allegation of unlawful discrimination may be disciplined or separated from state employment.

It is responsibility of all ADHS employees to promptly bring any allegation of unlawful discrimination, harassment or retaliation to the attention of the Department. Any complaint alleging unlawful discrimination, harassment or retaliation must be submitted in accordance with the procedures described in this policy and not under ADHS’ Employee Grievance Policy.

This policy does not affect other rights and remedies under federal and state statutes prohibiting employment discrimination. Charges filed with the Arizona Civil Rights Division must be filed within 180 days following the most recent act of discrimination; charges filed with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission must be filed within 300 days following the most recent act of discrimination. The filing of an internal complaint of discrimination pursuant to this policy will not impact those statutes of limitations. No employee of this Department who elects to file a charge with either the Arizona Attorney General’s Civil Rights Division or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, or who testifies in an investigation by either of those agencies, will be retaliated against or denied internal rights or remedies on account of that charge filing or testimony.
Matters Subject to the Complaint Procedure:
This procedure shall be used by an employee to file a complaint with the ADHS Complaint Coordinator within 180 days of the action giving rise to the complaint and to clearly outline the allegations to be addressed, including whether the basis of the complaint is based on:

Employees who choose to file a group complaint are prohibited from filing separate complaints on the same issue.
