Poisoning in Arizona among residents 0-19 years, 2011

4712 Arizona children and teens were treated at a hospital for non-fatal poisoning (798 inpatients and 3914 emergency department visits).

31 Arizona children and teens died from poisoning in 2011.

The 798 non-fatal inpatient hospitalizations resulted in over $12.7 million in hospital charges (mean=$15,982) and a total of 1556 days spent hospitalized.

Among the 3914 emergency department visits, another $12.7 million in hospital charges were accrued, where each patient paid an average of $3,255.

Produced by the Arizona Department of Health Services, Office of Injury Prevention January 2013