DHS Renewal: Terms and Conditions

Electronic Update Access Agreement Terms and Conditions for Arizona Department of Health Services (DHS)

You use of the DHS’s Internet-enabled transaction services to access and change records held with the DHS is governed by this Agreement. Please read the conditions provided before checking the “I ACCEPT” check box.

By checking the “I ACCEPT” check box and selecting the “Continue” button, you acknowledge and agree:

You have read and understood this Agreement. Your Login with the DHS system will confirm your acceptance of and agreement to be bound by the Terms applicable to that access.

Electronic Update Access requires an Electronic Signature which consists of your license number and the last four digits of your Social Security Number. The Electronic Signature is considered to be obtained at the time of successful DHS Login.

You, as a user of DHS’s Internet-enabled transaction services, are responsible for keeping your Login information secret and confidential. Your Liability

You agree that use of this Electronic Signature as set forth above is the legal equivalent to your written signed instructions to DHS, and that you will be bound by and liable for all use including unauthorized use by other persons without your knowledge or consent. You are aware that DHS is under no obligation to confirm the actual identity or authority of any user of the Electronic Signature on any component thereof. Propagation of Electronic Signature

You, as a user of DHS’s Internet-enabled transactions services, agree to keep the Electronic Signature and all components thereof secret and safe to prevent unauthorized use.

DHS Not Liable

DHS may cancel or restrict use of Electronic Update Access or Electronic Signature without notice to you, the user. DHS has no liability for damages or harm which you may incur or experience as a result of any non-acceptance, delay or restriction in implementing instructions, or for any unavailability, malfunction, cancellation, restriction or withdrawal of Electronic Update Access or any portion of such service or any device associated with it.

DHS Access

The DHS information accessible through Electronic Update Access is that which has been specified in advance on DHS’s records and to which DHS allows access.

Changes to Terms & Conditions

These Terms & Conditions may be subject to change. I agree to redeliver them from time to time for any such changes.

General

The terms and conditions of other agreements relating to any other DHS business you may have remain in force except as expressly altered by these Terms. If there is a conflict between any provision of those other agreements and these Terms, those agreements prevail.

Electronic Access to a personal computer (PC) you, as a user of the DHS’s Internet-enabled transaction services, assume responsibility to keep any information stored in your PC, on disk, or any associated equipment secure from unauthorized access.

Pursuant to A.R.S. 41-1030(B)(D)(E)(F)

B. An agency shall not base a licensing decision in whole or in part on a licensing requirement or condition that is not specifically authorized by statute, rule or state tribal gaming ordinance. A general grant of authority in statute does not constitute a basis for imposing a licensing requirement or condition unless a rule is made pursuant to that general grant of authority that specifically authorizes the requirement or condition.

D. This section may be enforced in a private civil action and relief may be awarded against the state. The court may award reasonable attorney fees, damages and all fees associated with the license application to a party that prevails in an action against the state for a violation of this section.

E. A state employee may not intentionally or knowingly violate this section. A violation of this section is cause for disciplinary action or dismissal pursuant to the Agency’s adopted personnel policy.

F. This section does not abrogate the immunity provided by section 12 920.01 or 12 920.02.

☐ I accept the above terms and conditions.
